RFC'S: NEW HAMPSHIRE MISSION

For our summer mission this year we will be returning to Littleton New Hampshire!

Last summer we spent 10 days there serving the community in various service projects. This summer we will be joining Wayne and Weezie Burger, Mac Graham, and the church in Littleton to preform more service projects and participate in their evangelistic efforts by hanging door hangers advertising a mental health seminar the church is putting on.

Littleton is a beautiful town in New Hampshire with wonderful, kind people, but people who are not Christians. Littleton is a town of 6,000 in a county of 90,000, and there is only one church of Christ in that county (Littleton church of Christ). The church has grown since last summer. They recently had a baptism and Wayne has a few Bible studies in progress with community members.

Our efforts last year helped make a good name for the church and we are excited to aid this great work again!

All cards and calls of concern and help have been meaningful and appreciated. Thank you again. I pray that all are well at this time.
